CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE KNANAYA CATHOLIC CONGRESS OF NORTH AMERICA (KCCNA)

PREAMBLE

Christianity started in India with St. Thomas, the Apostle. In A.D.345, Thomas of Cana, a leading navigator, merchant and intrepid world traveler of Cana in the Middle East lead a bold band of his people consisting of 72 families to Cranganore in the Kerala coast with a view to strengthening the church established by St. Thomas. This group of Christian pilgrims won the respect of the local king and became recipients of several honors and social distinctions. The descendants of this group maintained their separate identity and traditions, although they co-operated in all spiritual activities of the Indian Catholic hierarchy of which they formed an integral part. Knanaya Christians are the descendants of these Jewish Christian immigrants in Kerala. They were also called Southists (Thekkumbhagar) because they lived on the south side of Kodungalloor. It is also stated that Knananites were called Southists because they came from the southern kingdom of Judah. Knanaya Christians are seen not only among the Catholics but also among the Orthodox Christians of Kerala, because when a group of Thomas Christians joined Jacobitism, among them there were Knanaya Christians too. They observe many rituals and traditions, which are very peculiar to their own community. Even today, the Knananites continue to be an endogamous community. In order to keep the purity of their race and ethnicity, they do not marry anyone outside their community. A Knanaya Catholic can marry a Knanaya Jacobite.

The Knanaya Catholics were originally disbursed among different Diocese in Kerala State. His Holiness Pope St. Pius X appointed Bishop Mathew Makil as bishop of the Diocese of Changanacherry. The appointment was not well received by the non-Knanaya Catholics of the diocese. Holy See was convinced that the only way to maintain peace among the Knanaya and non-Knanaya members of the diocese was creating a separate diocese for the Knanaya Community. The desire to keep their unique identity and heritage, led to a strong move for a separate Diocese for the Knanaya Catholics. Through the intercession and personal appeal of His Excellency, Bishop Mar Mathew Makil, His Holiness Pope St. Pius X, on August 29, 1911, by a special Decree (In Universi Christiani) instituted a new Vicariate Apostolic of Kottayam and appointed Bishop Mar Mathew Makil to the new Diocese by transfer from his former Diocese of Changanacherry. On December 21, 1923 the Vicaraite Apostolic of Kottayam was elevated to an Eparchy by Pope Pius XI. The diocese of Kottayam is a multiritual diocese consisting of Syro Malabar and Malankara rites. The members of the Knanaya Catholic community in North America observe the Syro Malabar, Syro Malankara and Latin rites. Bishop Mar Mathew Makil was succeeded by His Excellencys; Mar Alexander Chulaparambil (July 16, 1914 – January 8, 1951), Mar Thomas Tharayil (January 8, 1951 – May 5, 1974) and Mar Kuriakose Kunnacherry (May 5, 1974 – January 14, 2006).

During Mar Kuriakose Kunnacherry's tenure, on May 9, 2005 Eparchy of Kottayam was elevated to a Metropolitan See.

On June 3, 2005, the feast of the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus, Mar Kuriakose Kunnacherry was ordained and enthroned as the first Metropolitan Archbishop of Kottayam. Upon Mar Kunnacherry's retirement on January 14, 2006, Mar Mathew Moolakatt became the Metropolitan Archbishop of Kottayam. Mar Joseph Pandarasseril is the Auxiliary bishop of the Archdiocese of Kottayam.

With the softening of immigration rules and great need for hospital personnel in North America, thousands of Knanaya Catholics migrated to this part of the world and settled in different parts of USA and Canada. Members in different states organized themselves and formed associations. The members throughout North America joined and conducted a very successful and historic first North American Knanaya Catholic Convention in July 1986 under the chairmanship of Mr. Thomas Mulackal and hosted by the New York association. Following the tremendous success of the first convention, the members realized the need and importance of forming a National Association of the Knanaya Catholics in North America. Subsequently, a committee was formed consisting of the elected representatives of New York, Chicago and Houston where regional associations existed, and nominated representatives from other regions. Numerous meetings and discussions later, this committee decided to form a national organization called "Knanaya Catholic Congress of North America" (KCCNA). The first Executive Committee of KCCNA was formed in August 1988 with Dr. Abraham Niravathu as the President. KCCNA is a federation of the Knanaya Catholic Associations in North America. KCCNA has now twenty member associations in North America. KCCNA is a lay organization that strives to maintain and promote the knanaya culture, traditions and heritage.

- Election Committee shall disclose a copy of the nomination documents of the opposing candidates in person or by electronic means.
6. The Election Committee members will not be eligible for any Executive Committee positions. However, if they are elected National Council members for the new term, they could be eligible for the positions, if they inform the Executive Committee of their desire and request to be removed from the Election Committee.
 7. The Election Committee shall conduct the election based on the current Constitution, which shall be provided to them by the KCCNA Executive Committee.
 8. The Election Committee shall approve the nominations after verifying the eligibility, accuracy and requirements of the nominations.
 9. In an event there is more than one nomination for an open position the election shall be held by secret ballot.
 10. National Council members shall be called for voting in the alphabetical order of their last name and their ID shall be verified.
 11. Each candidate can delegate a National Council member as an agent to ensure elections are conducted in a fair manner and to witness distribution and counting of ballots.
 12. In an event the Election Committee needs clarification regarding the By-laws and Constitution pertaining to any matters concerning the election process, the Election Committee shall request the Executive Committee to advice on such matters.
 13. Election Committee members shall be neutral, fair and impartial in all matters concerning the election process. Executive Committee could remove any member from the Election Committee for conduct that is detrimental to the neutral, fair and impartial image of the Election Committee. 75% majority approval of the Executive Committee is required for such removal. Executive committee shall replace the removed member by any one of the Past KCCNA Presidents.
 14. Election procedures – Diaspora Knanaya Catholic Congress (“DKCC”) delegates

KCCNA delegates to DKCC are to be elected as follows:

1. KCCNA President shall be a delegate as ex-officio
2. One individual voting member from each region shall be elected as delegate by the respective NC members of that region. Regions other than Canada, Chicago and NY shall have the delegate elected on a rotational basis, determined by the NC.

ARTICLE VII CONVENTIONS:

- i) Conventions shall be held for the North American Knanaya Catholics once every two years, in the month of July, at a place and time determined by the National Council. Convention may also be held in August, under unavoidable circumstances, subject to 50% of the total current National Council member’s

- approval. The National Council shall have the power to appoint special Convention Committee for this purpose.
- ii) Current KCCNA Treasurer shall be the Finance Committee Chairperson of the Convention. If the Treasurer is not from the hosting association, with the approval of the KCCNA executive committee, the treasurer may delegate such duties as necessary, to a co-chairperson from the hosting association. If the constitution of the hosting association mandates, approval of the general body of the hosting association shall also be obtained.
 - iii) Convention Chairperson shall be elected from the hosting Member Association by a joint council of the local Executive Committee, the KCCNA National Council members of the hosting Member Association and their regional KCCNA Vice President. The council shall be presided by the President of the hosting Member Association. The Convention Chairperson should be member of the hosting Member Association. The election of Convention Chairperson shall be conducted strictly according to these rules. The convention chairperson shall abide by the rules set by the Convention Committee and NC. To be eligible to host the convention, the host association shall agree that the rules herewith supersedes any parallel, contradicting or other rules contained in the host association's constitution and by-laws. KCCNA President, General Secretary or Treasurer shall not be eligible to be the Convention Chairperson. In an event a member from the hosting Member Association cannot or would not elect a Chairperson from the hosting Member Association, KCCNA Executive Committee will recommend the names of three individuals to the National Council to elect or select the Convention Chairperson. The elected Convention Chairperson shall Chair the Convention committee meetings. The Chairperson shall report to the Convention Committee and shall be accountable to the KCCNA Executive Committee and the National Council.
 - iv) KCCNA Executive Committee, Convention Chairperson and the hosting Member Association Executive Committee would constitute the Convention Committee.
 - v) KCCNA President, Vice President, General Secretary, Joint Secretary, Treasurer, Convention Chairperson, and hosting Member Association President will constitute the Steering Committee. KCCNA President shall preside the Steering Committee.
 - vi) The hosting Member Association shall be eligible / responsible for 15% of the profit/loss of the convention account. Distribution shall be only made after all convention related expenses are reimbursed and claims are settled. All claims are to be made within 90 days after the convention for consideration for reimbursement. The Treasurer shall make all re-imburements within 30 days after receiving such claims, except in cases where there is a dispute. There shall be no distribution of any remaining amount to any other Member Associations.
 - vii)
 - (a) Eligibility to register for convention or other gatherings organized by KCCNA:
 - 1. Unmarried individuals, eighteen years of age or over, who are born of both Knanaya parents are eligible.
 - 2. Individuals, born of both Knanaya parents, who are married to individuals who are also born of both Knanaya parents, are eligible.

3. Unmarried children, under eighteen years of age, born of both Knanaya parents are eligible.
4. “Born of” in 1, 2 and 3 above refers to “having birth or biological parents”.
5. All those who are eligible to register for convention as stated in (a) above shall have their registration verified by the member association in their area of primary residence as per the above four eligibility criteria.
6. Proper verification of Knanaya Jacobites from their parish priests shall be done by KCCNA Officers. Proper verification of foreign registrants shall be done by KCCNA Officers through appropriate means.

(b) Dignitaries, support staff or special guests may be invited by the NC for only specific purpose(s) or tasks. However, notwithstanding any other provisions of this constitution, the NC shall not use this provision to circumvent provisions and eligibility requirements of vii (a) above. It is further clarified that persons admitted under this provisions are not registrants as specified in vii (a) above

ARTICLE VIII

Section 1 – Subscription:

- a) Member Association and individual members shall remit an annual fee determined by the National Council from time to time, to the Treasurer of KCCNA, before the end of each calendar year.
- b) The National Council may from time to time assess from its constituent associations and members, funds requires for specific expenses of KCCNA.

Section 2 – Member Association Formation; Constitution & By-law and Membership List:

- (a) Member Associations shall be validly incorporated entities pursuant to local State laws, and in good standing, with a Constitution compatible with KCCNA’s Constitution. In the event a Member Association’s Constitution conflicts with KCCNA’s Constitution; then KCCNA’s Constitution shall prevail to the extent of the conflict. Every two years, Member Associations shall provide a copy of their Constitution and By-laws to the General Secretary of KCCNA, along with their membership list.
- (b) Membership in Knanaya associations. All KCCNA member associations or entities constituted as “Knanaya”, shall have their membership exclusively to persons defined in Article 1, Section 1 (b) of this constitution

Section 3: Mediation and Arbitration:

- 1) All disputes and conflict regarding KCCNA matters shall be resolved through the following process and order to prevent potential wastage of KCCNA funds due to disputes rather than using it to pursue the goals and objectives of the organization: Members should notify KCCNA Executive Committee of any dispute or conflicts in writing within 3 months from the time of the occurrence of the dispute or conflict.

- 2) If the executive committee is unable to resolve the dispute, it shall appoint a Mediation Committee selected from members of past and present Executive Committee members of KCCNA and Spiritual Director.
- 3) If the Mediation Committee is unable to resolve the dispute in a timely manner, to the satisfaction of all parties, it shall request KCCNA National Council to refer the dispute to an Arbitration Process. Unless the parties mutually agree otherwise, arbitration shall be in accordance with the Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") currently in effect.
- 4) Arbitration decision shall be accepted by KCCNA members on all KCCNA related matters.

Section 5- Diaspora Knanaya Catholic Congress (“DKCC”)
